Sri J. P. SARWESH.—Regarding question (f), may I know what happend to the remaining cases, that is cases which have not been rejected.

†Sri KADIDAL MANJAPPA.—The others are pending.

Sri J. P. SARWESH.—What are the reasons for rejecting 796 applications?

Sri KADIDAL MANJAPPA.—Want of adequate security, want of allotment and other reasons.

Smt. VIJAYA RAGHAVENDER RAO.—Since when are the other applications pending?

Sri KADIDAL MANJAPPA.—I have already made it clear on some other occasion that there is no question of sanctioning additional wells. We are more concerned with sanctioned wells than sanctioning wells.

Sri G. B. SHANKAR RAO.—Is it not a fact that some of the applications received afterwards are kept still pending in the hope that additional amount will be sanctioned and may I know whether any instructions have been issued to keep those applications pending?

Sri KADIDAL MANJAPPA.—We have not issued any instructions to keep those applications pending.
